

THE BABY REESA BENEFIT GOLF TOURNAMENT

Dear Friends:

We are very excited to be hosting The Baby Reesa Benefit Golf Tournament on Friday, July 27th 2012 at Gainey Ranch Golf Club in Scottsdale. A raffle, lunch, and Reesa's first birthday party will follow the golf tournament.

All proceeds from the tournament will benefit Reesa Stutzman who has Krabbe Leukodystrophy, an extremely rare genetic disorder with no cure and generally fatal before 2 years of age. Sean and Jamie Stutzman are the parents to Reesa. Our goal is to help Reesa and her family during this very difficult time.

As the medical costs can easily surpass $500,000, we are asking you to please support our event. You can do this by donating, by becoming a tournament sponsor or by participating in the tournament yourself! We also welcome donations of services or items for the raffle.

All tournament sponsors will have a sign advertising their sponsorship and will be listed in the program. Please refer to the registration form for sponsorship and participation levels.

Our deadline for items and to register is fast approaching and has been set for Monday, July 23rd, 2012. Thank you for your consideration and generosity. Reesa and her family appreciate your kindness and support during this difficult time in their lives.

Sincerely,

Rue Bax
